

TRIBUTE TO VETERANS OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES

HON. SHEILA JACKSON LEE

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 12, 2020

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Madam Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to all the men and women who have served in the Armed Forces of the United States and risked their lives to defend our freedoms and way of life and took and lived the oath to "support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic" and bore true faith and allegiance to the same, an obligation they took freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion.

Veterans are truly heroes walking among us.

I want to thank all of our armed servicemen and women for their selfless dedication to our protection every day.

Veterans Day is a reminder to all of us who live in freedom that, as President Kennedy said, "The price of freedom is high, but Americans have always paid it."

This Veterans Day is a welcome opportunity to remember that the fallen who gave the last full measure of devotion to their country on battlefields around the world—in places whose names may be unforgettable—or locations that have slipped into the pages of history.

We will never forget: Revolutionary War—Valley Forge, Yorktown; Civil War—The Battle of Antietam, The Battle of Gettysburg; World War I—The Battle of Argonne, Flanders Field, Verdun; World War II—Pearl Harbor, Battle of Bataan, The Battle of Midway, D-Day, Battle of the Bulge, Battle of Anzio, Battle of Corregidor; Korean War—Inchon, Heart Break Ridge, Pork Chop Hill; Vietnam—Tet Offensive, Battle of Hue; Desert Storm—September 11, 2001, Pentagon Attack (125 killed); Operation Enduring Freedom—Battle of Kandahar; Operation Iraqi Freedom—Second Battle of Fallujah.

The memory of the fallen are never forgotten.

Each Veterans Day, Americans come together to remember those who have served our country around the world in the name of freedom and democracy.

The debt that we owe to them is immeasurable.

Their sacrifices, and those of their families, are freedom's foundation.

Without the brave efforts of all the soldiers, sailors, airmen, marines and Coast Guardsmen and women and their families, our country would not live so freely.

I offer my deepest gratitude to our nation's troops and reservists, their families, and the 21.6 million veterans, including 29,126 here in the 18th Congressional District.

21.6 million brave men and women are veterans of our nation's military service.

This includes more than 2 million women, 2.7 million African-American men and women, 1.5 million Hispanic men and women, 342,000 Asian-American Pacific Islanders, and 178,000 American Indians.

Nine in ten military families believe the public does not understand or appreciate their sacrifices.

We use Veterans Day to show our veterans and military families how important they are to us and how grateful we are for them each and everyday.

November is National Caregivers Month to show our caregivers how grateful we are for them.

It is only fitting that we thank those caregivers who serve our military today.

5.5 million spouses, parents, children, and other loved ones care for our wounded warriors and 15 percent of caregivers spend 40+ hours a week providing care for our military families.

As a senior member of the House Committees on Judiciary and Homeland Security, I care deeply about our veterans.

In Congress, I have sponsored many legislative proposals and cosponsored more than 50 pieces of legislation that will positively benefit our veterans and their families."

This year, I introduced H.R. 2898, the Buddy Check Week, which has been endorsed by the American Legion.

The American Legion send email urging all congressional offices to support veterans by cosponsoring H.R. 2898, a bill to direct the Secretary of Veterans Affairs to designate a week as "Buddy Check Week" for the purpose of outreach and education concerning peer wellness checks for veterans, and for other purposes.

The American Legion was chartered and incorporated by Congress in 1919, and today it is the nation's largest wartime veterans service organization.

As we continue to fight the COVID-19 pandemic on all fronts, we cannot forget about our duty to care for our veterans who have already sacrificed so much for this country.

Throughout this epidemic, the feeling of isolation among veterans has only been amplified, causing an increased risk of suicide within the community.

CBS News has reported a 20 percent increase in military suicides when compared to the same period in 2019.

A report conducted by the Meadows Mental Health Policy Institute found that for every 5 percent increase in the unemployment rate, we could lose an additional 550 veterans to suicide annually and up to 20,000 more veterans may be susceptible to substance abuse as a result of the crisis.

Now more than ever, we need the Buddy Check Week Act.

This bill would provide vital support and training to organize outreach events and educate veterans on how to conduct peer wellness checks and recognize signs of problems in fellow veterans that indicate suicide risks.

This legislation is modeled after the American Legion's "Buddy Check National Week of Calling," held March 11 to 16, 2019, and will augment the organization's efforts to conduct outreach to veterans across the nation.

The Buddy Check Week Act directs the Secretary of Veterans Affairs in consultation with veterans, non-profits that serve veterans, mental health experts, and members of the Armed Forces, to develop and implement collaborative education opportunities for veterans to learn how to conduct wellness checks.

The VA will provide online or in-person training to individuals, as well as provide opportunities for Veterans Service Organizations (VSOs) to learn how to: train individuals to conduct peer wellness checks, transfer phone calls to the Veterans Crisis Line, and be resilient when handling a veteran in crisis.

The Buddy Check Week Act is a fitting way to honor our veterans and I look forward to working with my colleagues to see that it becomes law.

On the battlefield, the military pledges to leave no soldier behind.

As a nation, let it be our pledge that when they return home, we leave no veteran behind.

This day and every day let us honor their service with actions that fulfill our commitment to our troops, their families, and our veterans—and that are worthy of our grateful nation.

IN HONOR OF LESTER A.
BURDETTE

HON. JOHN JOYCE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 12, 2020

Mr. JOYCE of Pennsylvania. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor Lester A. Burdette of Huntingdon County for his service in the United States Army. Lester is an outstanding Pennsylvanian, and I am grateful for his service to our nation, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and our community.

In Pennsylvania and across the country, our veterans have served and sacrificed for Americans' freedom and our values. They answered the call to serve and fight for us—at a great cost. Truly, our veterans are the best of America.

In Congress, it is my privilege—and my responsibility—to stand up for those who have served our country in uniform, as well as to recognize these brave Americans. As a nation, we are indebted to them. On behalf of the 13th Congressional District, I thank Lester for his service to our nation and our community.

HONORING THE LIFE OF CONSTANTINE "BUZZ" BELER

HON. GEORGE HOLDING

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, November 12, 2020

Mr. HOLDING. Madam Speaker, I rise to honor the life of Constantine "Buzz" Beler, who passed away last month at the age of 90. For more than half a century, Buzz was a towering figure in the restaurant industry and a beloved pillar of his community.

The son of Peter and Cleo Harikleia "Hattie" Beler, Buzz learned the ropes of the restaurant industry at a young age working at his parents' restaurant in Baltimore, Maryland.

Buzz went on to attend the University of Virginia where he was a member of the Riding team and a standout in the classroom. Following graduation, Buzz returned home to pursue a law degree at the University of Maryland.

Buzz did a brief stint in the Army and then spent some time working at a local law firm. Ultimately, though, Buzz found himself yearning to return to the restaurant business. When the Horizon House—a little known eatery in Baltimore—went up for sale in 1965, Buzz and his brother seized the opportunity and opened up the "Prime Rib."

Their elegant, yet simplistic steakhouse did quite well. A decade later the brothers decided
